Concepts and definitions

Trader: Any person who deals in Travel Services, and irrespective of whether acting as an Organizer, Retailer, Travel Service Provider or Trader facilitating a Linked Travel Arrangement.

Organizer (or: Tour Operator): the Trader who puts together a Travel Package and offers it directly or through another Trader or the Trader who is otherwise responsible for a Travel Package.

Retailer: Trader, other than the Organizer, who offers Travel Packages put together by the Organizer.

Traveller (also: Customer or You): any person other than a Trader who wishes to enter into an Agreement or who is entitled to performance on the basis of an Agreement with Boat Bike Tours North America Inc. If a Traveller enters into an Agreement with a Trader for and/or on behalf of other persons, (or a group) and the Traveller acts as the main Booker/booking party, then Traveller is responsible for the obligations and behavior of the other persons in his booking.

Point of sales: retail space, mobile or otherwise, or a retail website or similar online sales platform, including retail websites or online sales platforms offered to Travellers as a single platform, including a telephone Service.

Force Majeure: an unavoidable and extraordinary circumstance, a situation that arises irrespective of the will of the party, the consequences of which could not have been avoided despite all reasonable precautions.

Package Travel: a combination of at least two different types of Travel Service for the same trip or holiday, if:

- i) those Services are combined by a single Trader, where appropriate upon request or at the discretion of the Traveller, before concluding a single Agreement covering all the Services; or
- ii) those Services, whether or not separate Agreements are concluded with different Travel Service providers, are:
 1. purchased from a single point of sale and chosen before the Traveller agrees to pay;
 2. offered, purchased or invoiced for a joint price or a total price;
 3. recommended or purchased under the term "Package Travel" or a similar term;
 4. combined after the conclusion of an Agreement under which the Trader allows the Traveller to choose from a selection of different types of Travel Service; or
 5. purchased from several Traders via interconnected online booking procedures, where the name, payment details and email address of the Traveller are provided by the Trader with whom the first Agreement is concluded to another Trader or Traders and an Agreement is concluded with the latter no later than 24 hours after confirmation of the booking of the first Travel Service;

unless one type of Travel Service is combined with one or more other Services that:

- do not constitute a significant part of the value of the combination, are not promoted as an essential characteristic of the combination or otherwise do not represent an essential characteristic of the combination;
- are selected and purchased only after performance of a Travel Service has commenced.

Linked Travel Arrangement: at least two different types of Travel Service that are purchased for the same trip or holiday, which do not constitute a Travel Package and for which separate Agreements are concluded with different Travel Service providers, where a Trader:

- i) facilitates the separate selection and payment by the Traveller of each Travel Service during one visit to, or contact with, his own point of sale; or
- ii) facilitates the purchase of at least one additional Travel Service from another Trader in a targeted manner, provided that an Agreement is concluded with the other Trader at the latest within 24 hours of the confirmation of the booking of the first Travel Service;

unless one type of Travel Service and one or more other Services are purchased and the latter Services do not constitute a significant part of the combined value of the Services and are not advertised as an essential characteristic of the trip or holiday and otherwise do not represent an essential characteristic of the trip or holiday.

Travel Service: a Service relating to:

- i) passenger transport;
- ii) accommodation which is not an essential part of the passenger transport and which is not intended for permanent habitation;
- iii) hiring of cars, other motor vehicles

Package Travel Agreement: (also called: booking confirmation) Agreement covering the whole of the Travel Package or, if the Travel Package is provided under separate Agreements, all Agreements relating to Travel Services forming part of the Travel Package including these General Traveller Terms and Conditions (Traveller Terms).

Section 1 - Introduction

- 1.1. These General Traveller Terms and Conditions ("GTCs") are applicable to Package Travel Agreements, which Boat Bike Tours North America Inc. enters into with a Traveller.
- 1.2. These GTCs can also be declared applicable to single Travel Services, such as accommodation, car rental and shuttle bus journeys, as explicitly stated in the offer.
- 1.3. Traveller is entitled to cancel the Travel Agreement without having to provide a reason within 24 hours of its conclusion, unless this right is excluded in the offer by use of the term: "definitive booking". The term Traveller - in this context - refers exclusively to the main booker/booking party. You do not have a right of withdrawal in the event that the Travel Agreement is entered into within 8 weeks prior to departure, nor in the case of "Cruise Travel".
- 1.4. Working days: Monday to Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. ET, except public holidays recognized in the United States of America, unless the Trader expressly states otherwise.

Section 2 - Information to be provided by the Trader (Travel Organizer)

- 2.1 The Trader has provided Traveller with the standard information required by law and the main characteristics of the Travel Services prior to the conclusion of this Agreement.
- 2.2. The Trader may subject the conclusion of a specific Travel Agreement to the condition that you purchase Travel insurance, and may also request proof of such.
- 2.3 The Trader accepts no responsibility for general information in photos, leaflets, advertisements, websites and other information carriers, if these have been drawn up or published by third parties.
- 2.4 If the offer of the Trader is available online, the details stated in this offer shall form part of the Travel Agreement, unless otherwise specified in the offer. An Organizer's online offer can change quickly. If you want to be able to prove at a later stage what the offer exactly entailed, make a printout of the screen (print screen) that shows the offer of the Organizer.
- 2.5 Without prejudice to the above, you shall remain responsible for obtaining additional information on passports and visa requirements from the relevant authorities, and you must also ascertain in good time before departure whether or not the information previously obtained has changed.
- 2.6 In the case of air Travel, the Organizer will inform you of the identity of the airline providing the transport as soon as it is known to the Organizer. The definitive departure and arrival times for transport components will be stated in the Travel documents.

Section 3 - Information to be provided by the Traveller

- 3.1. You must provide all information regarding yourself and all Travellers for which you have made a booking that could be of importance in the conclusion or performance of the Agreement in good time, before the Agreement is entered into. This shall in any event include your mobile telephone number(s) and email address(es).
- 3.2. You must indicate any details regarding your own physical and mental condition, and regarding the capacity or composition of the party you have made a booking for, which could be of importance to the proper performance of the Travel Package. This includes informing the Organizer of reduced physical mobility or important or life-threatening food allergies.
- 3.3. If you fail to comply with your obligations to provide the information set forth herein, this may result in the Organizer or someone on his behalf excluding said Traveller(s) from (further) participation in the Travel Package. In such cases, all associated costs will be charged to you.
- 3.4. You may ask the Organizer to change the Travel offer for medical reasons and other reasons. The Organizer shall inform you of any related costs. The Organizer is not required to meet such a request. If the Organizer decides to do so, you must pay the costs associated with the change.

Section 4 - Confirmation/Withdrawal by the Travel Organizer

- 4.1. The Agreement is concluded as a result of your acceptance of the offer of the Organizer, including the Terms and Conditions declared applicable and receipt of the statutory information. Upon or immediately after conclusion of the Agreement, you will receive a confirmation, and/or an invoice.
- 4.2. In the case of Package Travel Agreements concluded by telephone, you are only bound by the Agreement after the Organizer has confirmed the Travel Package. This confirmation should be made in writing (including by email). If you make a (down) payment, it will in any case serve as proof that you have accepted the Organizer's offer.
- 4.3. The Organizer is entitled to terminate the Travel Agreement in writing within the period stated in the offer in the event that the number of Travellers is smaller than the required minimum number of participants made known prior to the booking. The Organizer shall inform you of this at the latest:
 - 20 days prior to departure for Travel Packages of more than six (6) days;
 - 7 days prior to departure for Travel Packages of two (2) to six (6) days;
 - 48 days prior to departure for Travel Packages of less than two (2) days.If you have made any (down) payments, the Organizer will refund the payments within the period stated in Section 4.5.
- 4.4. The offer of the Organizer is free of obligation. Where necessary, the Organizer may withdraw the offer, including after you have accepted the offer and after confirmation by the Travel Organizer. The withdrawal must take place as quickly as possible, in any event within 24 hours (Travel Packages within Europe, incl. the Mediterranean Sea countries) or within 48 hours (Travel Packages to other destinations) after the date of acceptance, giving reasons. If you accept the offer over the weekend, the deadline for withdrawal by the Organizer starts at midnight on Sunday evening ET, unless it is followed by a generally recognized public holiday, in which case the withdrawal period starts at midnight ET on the last public holiday.

4.5. In all cases where you are entitled to a refund of payments already made by you, the Organizer shall do so without delay, but in any case within 14 days after the right to a refund has arisen.

4.6. Manifest errors and/or mistakes shall not be binding on the Organizer. Such errors and mistakes are errors and mistakes that are or should be recognizable as such at first sight from the point of view of the average Traveller.

Section 5 - Changes made by the Travel Organizer

5.1. The Organizer has the right to change the Travel Agreement if it concerns minor changes and if he has informed you in a clear, understandable and prominent manner and in good time. You may not reject this change.

5.2. If the Organizer is obliged to make a substantial change before the start of Travel, he shall inform you in a clear and comprehensible manner and ask you whether you wish to accept the proposed changes or cancel the Travel Agreement free of charge. If the changes imply a reduction in the quality or cost of the Travel Package, the Organizer shall at the same time make an appropriate proposal to reduce the price of the Package. Significant changes are understood to mean changes in the main characteristics of the Travel Services within the meaning of Section 2.1.

5.3. For Travel Packages commencing 14 days or later after notification of the change as referred to in the previous paragraph, you must inform the Organizer of your decision no later than 48 hours after receipt of the notification. For Travel Packages commencing within 14 days after notification, you must inform the Organizer of your decision without delay and in any case within 24 hours. If you fail to communicate your decision within the set period, you will be deemed to have accepted the changes.

5.4. Up to twenty days before commencement of the Travel Package, the Organizer may increase the Travel Sum by no more than 8%, but only if that is due to:

- an increase in fuel costs or;
- an increase in the cost price of other energy sources or;
- an increase in taxes or;
- an increase in fees for Travel Services included in the Agreement, charged by third parties not directly involved in its implementation, including Tourist Taxes, landing fees and departure or arrival taxes at ports and/or airports.

The Organizer may include in its additional terms and conditions that it reserves this right to increase the price even in the event of an increase in the currency exchange rates which are relevant to the Travel Package. You are entitled to a price reduction less the administrative costs actually incurred if, for the same reasons, the costs as described in this Section decrease.

5.5. If the Organizer increases the Travel Sum by more than 8% within the limits of Section 5.4, you shall have the right to reject this increase and the right to terminate the Travel Agreement free of charge. In that case, Sections 5.2 and 5.3 shall apply.

5.6. By way of derogation from Section 5.4, the Organizer shall no longer change the Travel Sum from the date on which the full Travel Sum must have been paid in accordance with these GTCs and you have actually paid the Travel Sum.

5.7. If you do not accept the changes and the Organizer cannot offer you an alternative Travel Package or if you do not accept this, the Organizer shall refund all amounts paid by you without delay and in any case within 14 days of cancellation. If you accept the alternative offer, you are entitled to an appropriate price reduction.

Section 6 - Help and Assistance

6.1. The Organizer shall offer help and assistance if you experience difficulties. This also applies to unavoidable and exceptional circumstances as a result of which the Travel Package does not proceed in accordance with the expectations you could reasonably have on the grounds of the Agreement. This assistance shall consist of adequate information on medical services, local authorities, consular assistance and support in using communication and finding alternatives. The party responsible for the circumstances giving rise to such help and assistance shall bear the costs thereof.

6.2. In the event that these difficulties are the result of intent or negligence on your part, the costs incurred by the Organizer shall also be borne by you. These costs shall not exceed the costs actually incurred by the Organizer and any third parties it has engaged.

6.3. In the event that the Travel Package does not proceed in accordance with the expectations you could reasonably have as a result of circumstances that are attributable neither to you nor the Organizer, each of these shall bear their own losses. For the Organizer, these may consist, among other things, of extra staffing costs and for you these may consist, among other things, of additional accommodation and repatriation costs.

6.4. If transport forms part of the Travel Package and your return cannot be arranged for on the agreed date due to force majeure, you shall be entitled to a maximum of three (3) free nights in equivalent accommodation, if possible. This limitation of 3 nights shall not apply to disabled persons and their companions, pregnant women, unaccompanied minors and persons in need of specific medical assistance, provided that they have informed the Organizer of these special circumstances at least 48 hours before commencement of the Travel Package.

Section 7 - Performance of the Agreement and Liability of the Travel Organizer

7.1. The Organizer is responsible for the performance of the Travel Agreement in accordance with the expectations that you may reasonably have on the grounds of the Agreement. If a certain part of the Travel Agreement cannot be performed in accordance with the Agreements and you have immediately informed the Organizer thereof, the Organizer shall ensure that the Agreement is performed in accordance with the Agreements. This unless it is impossible or involves such high costs that you cannot reasonably require the Organizer to do so.

7.2. Where a significant proportion of the Services cannot be provided, the Organizer shall ensure that suitable alternatives of at least equivalent quality are available free of charge. During the period that the Travel Agreement is not performed in accordance with what you may reasonably expect on the grounds of the Agreement, and also if the alternatives offered are of lower quality, the Organizer shall offer an appropriate price reduction.

7.3. You have the right to reject the proposed alternatives if they are not comparable with what has been agreed in the Travel Agreement. If the alternative offered is of inferior quality, you may reject it if the price reduction offered is insufficient.

7.4. In assessing the alternative and/or the price reduction offered, account shall be taken of objective criteria which are apparent from the alternative offer. This shall include the following circumstances:

- The location of the accommodation at the destination;
- The nature and class of the accommodation;
- Any other facilities the accommodation offers.

This assessment will also take into account:

- The composition of the Traveller group;
- The characteristics of the Traveller(s) known to and confirmed by the Organizer, including the personal circumstances reported by the Traveller and accepted and recorded by the Organizer;

7.5. You may remedy a shortcoming and are entitled to reimbursement of necessary expenses incurred in this respect, if:

a. You have informed the Organizer in good time that the Travel Package will not be performed in accordance with the expectations you may reasonably have and the Organizer does not remedy this shortcoming within a reasonable period set by you, or if the Organizer indicates that he is unable to remedy the shortcoming;

b. The shortcoming must be remedied immediately.

7.6. If the shortcoming has significant consequences for the performance of the Travel Package and the Organizer has not remedied it within a reasonable period of time, you may terminate the Agreement free of charge. In that case, you are entitled to compensation and/or a price reduction. This is without prejudice to your right, if transport is included in the Travel Package, to repatriation free of charge with an equivalent Transport Service.

7.7. To the maximum extent allowed under mandatory laws, the liability of the Organizer for loss suffered by you shall be limited to three times the Travel Sum unless there is intent or deliberate recklessness on the part of the Organizer. The Organizer may not exclude or limit his/her liability for loss arising from injury to the Traveller.

7.8. The Organizer shall not be liable for the failure in the performance of an obligation if it is attributable to you, a consequence of unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances or attributable to a third party not engaged by the Organizer in the performance of the Travel Services.

7.9. Where a Service covered by the Travel Agreement is subject to additional rules, the Organizer may invoke an exclusion or limitation of liability granted or allowed to a Service Provider as such under applicable laws. In the event of cumulation of compensation or price reduction within the meaning of this Section, the Organizer may offset the compensation against each other.

7.10. The Organizer is not responsible for fluctuation in the USD-EUR currency markets. All Travel Packages paid in USD are paid at the current daily exchange rate with EUR plus any banking fees or charges incurred by Organizer on the day of payment (or refund). If currency prices fluctuate between payment and the start of the Travel arrangement, there will be no reimbursement to Traveller or additional charges from Organizer.

Section 8 - Rights of the Traveller

8.1. Substitution

8.1.1. Traveller may request that the Organizer replace you with another person. This is subject to the following conditions:

- The other person complies with all the conditions to which the Agreement is subject; and
- You shall submit the request no later than 7 calendar days before departure in a manner communicated in advance by the Organizer, or in good time such that the Organizer can still carry out the necessary actions and formalities; and
- The terms and conditions of the Service Providers involved in the performance do not preclude such substitution.

8.1.2. The booking party, you and the person substituting you shall be jointly and severally liable vis-à-vis the Travel Organizer for payment of the part of the Travel Sum still owed, the amendment fee, surcharges and other costs resulting from the substitution.

8.1.3. At your request, the Organizer shall make these costs transparent and, if you so request, shall provide you with documents showing these costs.

8.2. Travel documents

8.2.1. The Organizer shall indicate in the confirmation the time at and manner in which the Organizer will make the Travel documents available to you.

8.2.2. If you have not received your Travel documents by the time specified by the Organizer, but no later than 5 working days before departure, you must immediately inform the Organizer or the Retailer.

Section 9 - Cancellation by the Traveller

9.1. You may cancel the Travel Agreement before the start of the Travel Package. If you do this, you will be obliged to compensate the Organizer for the loss he suffers as a result of the cancellation. This loss amounts to a maximum of once the Travel Sum.

9.2. Unless the Organizer agrees otherwise with you, the percentages agreed below (fixed loss) based on the time of cancellation, any expected cost savings and income the Organizer obtains from still selling the cancelled Travel Package, in addition to any reservation costs due, shall apply:

9.2.1. If the Traveller cancels the Travel Package Agreement for all booked passengers, the cancellation costs are:

- for cancellation after completion of the Travel Package Agreement, but up to (excluding) the 84th calendar day before Travel services start: 20% of the total Travel Sum;
- If cancelled from the 84th calendar day (inclusive) up to (excluding) the 42nd calendar day before Travel Services start: 30% of the total Travel Sum;

- If you cancel from the 42nd calendar day (inclusive) up to (excluding) the 28th calendar day before travel start: 60% of the Travel Sum;
- In case of cancellation from the 28th calendar day (inclusive) up to (including) the last calendar day travel start: 90% of the travel sum;
- In case of cancellation on the day of commencement of the package travel or thereafter (including 'no-show'): the full 100% of the total Travel Sum.

9.2.2 In case of cancellation by one Traveller who is booked together with another Traveller in a double or twin cabin, and where the other Traveller does not cancel the Travel Package Agreement, the cancelling Traveller is entitled to transfer all rights and obligations under the Package Travel Agreement to a new Traveller ('substitution') under the conditions referred to in Section 8.1. In this case, Organizer shall amend the Package Travel Agreement without charging a cancellation fee.

9.2.3 If no substitution by the Traveller occurs in the situation described in Section 9.2.2, as a result of which the double or twin cabin is used by only one person - contrary to the provisions of Section 9.2.1 - in the event of cancellation up to (excluding) the 42nd calendar day before the start of the tour, the Traveller who cancels shall be charged a cancellation fee amounting to 60% of the travel sum. In the event of cancellation within 42 days before the start of the Travel Services, the cancellation fee calculation of Section 9.2.1 will apply.

9.2.4 In this context, "Travel Sum" means the price charged by or on behalf of the Organizer, excluding agreed locally payable costs, as well as any booking fees and insurance costs.

9.3. If you cancel the Travel Agreement, you are obliged to pay these cancellation costs specified in Section 9.2.

9.4. If a Travel Package is composed of different parts to which different cancellation provisions apply, the specific provisions of the terms related to the Service Provider that apply to each part of the Travel Agreement shall apply. At the latest at the time of booking, the Organizer shall communicate whether specific cancellation provisions apply to parts of the Travel Package.

9.5. If a Traveller from a Travel group cancels his share of a Travel Agreement for a joint stay in a hotel, apartment, holiday home or other accommodation, cancellation costs shall be due. The Organizer shall calculate these costs on the basis of the provisions of the following paragraph.

9.6. If the size of the remaining group appears in the price table for this accommodation, the Organizer shall make a proposal for an amendment to the remaining Traveller(s) for the same period and in the same accommodation, appropriate to the new group size. For the Traveller(s) referred to above, the Travel sum shall change in accordance with the price table. The regular payment rules applied by the Organizer shall apply to payment of the modified Travel sum. If the modified offer is not possible or if the Travellers do not accept it, the Agreement for all Travellers shall be cancelled and all Travellers shall be charged a cancellation fee based on Section 9.2 above.

9.7. The total amount of cancellation fee and changed Travel sums shall not exceed the total Travel sum of the original Travellers. The Organizer shall deduct any surplus from the new Travel sum.

9.8. Cancellation Date: The official cancellation date, which is used to calculate the cancellation fee, is the date on which the Organizer receives the relevant written communication, even if it is not a business day, but a weekend or holiday.

9.9. If unavoidable and exceptional circumstances qualifying as Force Majeure occur, which have a significant impact on the performance of the Travel Package, and the Travel Package has not yet started, Traveller may cancel the Agreement free of charge and the Organizer shall refund all prepaid monies. In this case, you shall not be entitled to compensation.

9.10. For Travel Packages to an area for which a calamity has been established by the relevant government institutions (with regards to the destination and/or Travel restrictions), it is assumed that a situation exists as described in the previous paragraph. In that case, you can cancel your booking free of charge from three (3) calendar days before departure or change your booking, if possible and you wish to do so.

Section 10 - Payments

10.1. Before concluding the Travel Agreement, you will receive information from the Organizer as to when the Travel sum must have been paid (in full). The Organizer may require (a) deposit(s). He shall communicate the amount of the deposit(s) before or at the time of completion of the Travel Agreement. If you have not fulfilled your financial obligations at the time specified by the Organizer, you will be in default by operation of law.

10.2. In you are in default, you will be issued with a payment demand by or on behalf of the Organizer, and will be given a period of seven (7) days during which still to meet your obligations.

Please be aware that if payment has still not been made by that time, the Travel Agreement will be deemed to have been cancelled as of that day. The Organizer will deduct the cancellation fee from the amounts already paid. If the departure date is within 14 days, you must pay the full Travel Sum at the latest two working days (48 hours) before the day of start of the Package Travel.

10.3. If you have not paid on time you shall owe the statutory interest on the amount due from the date of default. After receiving a demand for payment, you shall also be required to pay the extrajudicial collection costs .

10.4. The extrajudicial costs amount to a maximum of 15% in the case of a Travel Sum of up to USD2,500; 10% of the next USD2,500; 5% of the next USD5,000 and 1% of the amount above this, but in all cases at least USD50. The Organizer may deviate from the stated amounts and percentages in your favor.

Section 11 - Further obligations of the Traveller

11.1. You are required to comply with all instructions issued by or on behalf of the Organizer, and are liable for damage or loss caused by your actions and/or those of your fellow Travellers. This is to be evaluated according to the standard of the conduct of a well-behaved Traveller.

11.2. If you cause or may cause hindrance or nuisance to such an extent that proper performance of a Travel Package is or could be impeded, the Organizer may exclude you from the Travel Package or the rest of the Travel Package, if you cannot reasonably expect of the Organizer to (further) comply with the Travel Agreement. The costs arising from this shall be borne by you.

11.3. You are required to avoid or limit any loss on your part as much as possible.

11.4. You must ascertain the exact time of departure for the return journey no later than 24 hours before the stated time of departure.

11.5. You are responsible for any medical expenses incurred while Travelling and any financial losses from cancelling your Packaged Travel or resulting changes and cancellations in accommodations, air tickets and other Travel components booked outside the Packaged Travel Agreement provided by the Organizer. For this reason, it is recommended that you purchase a Travel protection plan to cover expenses associated with unexpected disruptions to your Travel plans.

Section 12 - Complaints (procedure)

During the Package Travel

12.1. Without prejudice to Section 7, you must immediately report complaints about the performance of the Agreement on site, so that a solution can be sought. In this context, you must report – in the following sequence – to:

- The appropriate Service Provider;
- The Tour Leader / Tour Director or, if he/she is not present or available;
- The Organizer.

12.2. In the event that the complaint is not resolved, and negatively affects the quality of the Travel Package, you must in any event communicate this immediately – in other words, without any attributable delay – to Boat Bike Tours North America Inc..

12.3. If a complaint is not resolved satisfactorily on site, the Organizer shall ensure that there is a possibility to record it in the form of a written complaint (complaint report).

12.4. The Organizer shall ensure that there is information regarding the procedure to be followed on site, the contact details and availability of the persons involved.

12.5. In the event you fail to comply with the obligation to register a complaint in the manner indicated by the Organizer, and as a result the Service Provider or Organizer has not been given the opportunity to remedy the failure, you may lose any right to compensation (in whole or in part).

After the Travel Package

12.6. If your complaint has not been resolved satisfactorily, you must submit it in writing, within two months of the end of the Travel Package (or the Service used), or after the original date of departure if the Travel Package has not taken place. You must enclose a copy of the complaint report, if available, as well as all relevant documentation and/or pictures.

12.7. If the complaint relates to the completion of a Travel Agreement, it must be submitted to the Organizer as quickly as possible, and in any event within two months of the facts to which the complaint relates.

12.8. In event that you do not submit the complaint in good time, it will not be processed, unless you cannot reasonably be blamed for this.

12.9. The Organizer shall respond to you no later than one month after receipt of the complaint.

Section 13 - Disputes

13.1. If your complaint is not resolved satisfactorily, you shall be entitled to put the case before the competent court.

13.2. The Laws of the State of Connecticut, USA, are applicable to the Agreement(s) entered into, amended or supplemented on the basis of these GTCs, unless another law is applicable under mandatory rules.

13.3. The courts in the State of Connecticut, USA, are exclusively competent to hear such disputes, mandatory rules proscribe otherwise.

Version 02:

These General Conditions for Package Travel Agreements of Boat Bike Tours North America Inc. (Version 02) will take effect on October 1, 2025 and apply to all new Travel Agreements (bookings) made on or after October 1, 2025, as well as to all existing Travel Agreements changed on or after this date.
